

Maretlwane Lodge

General Information:

Maretlwane Lodge is a tastefully furnished, self-catering “home in the bush” which provides comfortable accommodation for up to 10 people. Two separate wings share a common living area. Each wing has two bedrooms with a double bed in 1 room, and 3 single beds in the other (sharing a common veranda). Each wing is semi- independent with a kitchenette, shower and toilet.

The common area has a central fireplace, a dining room and fully equipped kitchen. A thatched Lapa with a wooden deck overlooking the river provides a perfect sunset drinks setting. Next to the Lapa is a braai area with plenty of seating space. Firewood and braai facilities are provided at additional cost. The Lodge is off the Eskom grid but solar power and gas ensure you have a comfortable stay. No electrical appliances other than those drawing light current (e.g. cell phone chargers) can be accommodated.

The Maretlwane property is owned by the Maretlwane Trust and is held for the purposes of education and conservation. Visits to Maretlwane Lodge help support the vision of the Trust. The Lodge is ideally placed for visitors residing in Pretoria and Johannesburg and is perfect for an escape from the city.
